Sunday July 7th, 1-3pm What's in my backyard? Informative invasive species walk through the diverse ecosystems of the Pine Hollow Arboretum

~Meet at 34 Pine Hollow Road~

Help us kick off 2019's Invasive Species Awareness Week with an informative walk through the Pine Hollow Arboretum! Learn about the different invasive forest pests that we work to control. Explore the diverse plant life, learn about our non-invasive exotic species, and native species that are good alternatives to non-native gardening. There arboretum is also home to many bird species so bring your binoculars in case there is an impromptu birding session! Trails are fairly accessible with mild inclines, but bring your boots, it can get a little wet! RSVP is not necessary, but parking space is limited, so consider carpooling

Sunday July 14th, 2-4pm Haiku Workshop Presented by Michael Czarnecki

~Meet at 34 Pine Hollow Road~

Michael Czarnecki has been writing haiku for decades. He is returning to Pine Hollow Arboretum for his third year and will present different forms of Japanese writings and historical material on haiku. The workshop will take place outside, so please dress accordingly and bring a notebook you can easily carry. The workshop is open to all levels of writing experience.
